

----- Original Message -----

(original in italian)

From: alberto.pollmann@mondigroup.com

Date: 10-Jul-2010 13:20

A: "Matias Pollmann Gomez" <pg.matias@gmail.com>

Re: two things to think about

Hi Matias

two topics are to be addressed and - to avoid misunderstandings between us-, I prefer to address them in black and white.

I repeat again that I am not angry with you and there are two things that I would like them to be clear

1. - The "talents"

The talents must be used and should be well used, multiplying them.

I told you once: "I expect from you that, with your skills, you should go to the number 1, 2 or 3 in the world in a certain topic and become an expert in that field in order to give later your contribution to society and mankind."

This is still valid and is what as your father I expect from you.

By making so, you will have a better view of world dimension! At the beginning you will feel that you know nothing about, that everyone else knows much more '. And this has at least three important aspects:

- You will feel yourself "small small"
- But you'll see the vast amount of things that you could learn
- You'll be in a group at a higher level where you can really measure yourself, collaborate with persons "at equal and similar level" and to exchange views and ideas at a good level

I know that you share the idea that you know almost everything: in sports, and in other fields. Well, it is not like that !.

You have many good qualities, but I do not agree the way you faces some things:

- In Bolivia the way you wrote about yourself because you cook the bread to the people
 - in India because you want to do a project where you already think you know everything, etc.
- Go to a place where you can measure yourself with people at a high level, learn while you can, multiply your "Talents"

Matthew 25:14-30 : The Parable of the Bags of Gold

¹⁴“Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his wealth to them. ¹⁵To one he gave five bags of gold, to another two bags, and to another one bag,^[a] each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey. ¹⁶The man who had received five bags of gold went at once and put his money to work and gained five bags more. ¹⁷So also, the one with two bags of gold gained two more. ¹⁸But the man who had received one bag went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money.
¹⁹“After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. ²⁰The man who had received five bags of gold brought the other five. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘you entrusted me with five bags of gold. See, I have gained five more.’
²¹‘His master replied, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!’
²²“The man with two bags of gold also came. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘you entrusted me with two bags of gold; see, I have gained two more.’
²³‘His master replied, ‘Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things; I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master’s happiness!’
²⁴“Then the man who had received one bag of gold came. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. ²⁵So I was afraid and went out and hid your gold in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.’
²⁶‘His master replied, ‘You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? ²⁷Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.
²⁸““So take the bag of gold from him and give it to the one who has ten bags. ²⁹For whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them. ³⁰And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

Sons and daughters are expected to exceed parents because in the rule they have more possibilities. Possibility to grow-up multi-language, multi-cultural, hence open-minded, the experiences of their parents, knowledge of other cultures, bilingual life, etc.

If you need any support, please let me know it: I could try to contact somebody or I can personally do something, clarify something, answer a few questions, comment some thought from you. The only condition: respect for the role of the Father, and for this reason, for now, not in my house.

2. - Depth of thought, analytical skills, superficiality

I repeat what I said in the email below. I'm surprised about that You did not think 360 ° around an argument, sit "on the other side of the table," to try to understand something more. '

But: This you can learn.

Try to learn it, it is very important.

I'm not the only one thinking of this your "superficiality" (please do not get angry of the word, I'm just trying to give a clear message on the subject).

Everything said in the email below is still valid (taken out the fact that I start to take the issue "Matis" in my Hands)

I love you

papa '

PS: I did not know that you already at 30.6 you had officially the Master degree. Congratulations if it was so.

Von: Alberto Pollmann (AT, Wien)
Gesendet: Samstag, 03. Juli 2010 13:00
An: 'Matias Pollmann Gomez'
Betreff: AW: a few days in Italy

I have read and re-read your message several times. I would have expected a similar email on December 26th last year or Dec 28th, but not after 6 months and, for me, it means that you have not thought 360 degrees around, you have not tried to understand "why". I'm surprised/disillusioned of your email.

Perhaps you did not understand that you have written an e-mail "to your classmate or friend." Instead you wrote it to your father. And I'll be 'your father even in 30 years. And even tomorrow. And always!

And you do not even realize that they are not "angry." Believe me I'm not angry, I'm disillusioned.

For now it remains so. ' You're out of my house, by now!
And I repeat what I said you on Dec. 25th when taking a walk together and now I write it to you to have it clear: I'll take in my hand the issues "one-by-one" and I shall approach them 'trying to fix them! And "in this moment" you're not that "one" issue.
You should respect what you have originated or helped to create: do not go to my house if I am present or not!. Be a man and keep your word!. Do not disillusion me also on this.

I think to come back tomorrow to Pescantina to fix some things between Monday and Wednesday!

Bye
ap

And try to reflect, because I do it always, always, always, always....!

Von: Matias Pollmann Gomez [mailto: pg.matias @ gmail.com]
Gesendet: Mittwoch, 30. Juni 2010 11:24
An: Alberto Pollmann (AT, Wien)
Betreff: a few days in Italy
Hello,

I'll be back in Italy a few days in July, I do not know when.

It is obvious that none of us will move on from own reasons for being angry with each other. These reasons are different, and so there's no one can argue the other.

I am ready to leave it all behind me. But is necessary that you are also ready too and that give at least some new from you. Otherwise we keep like this, there's no problem from my point of view. You should know that I put it all behind me.

bye

Matias
-
Matias Pollmann Gomez
Copenhagen, Denmark

Master in Management Engineer
Technical University of Denmark (DTU)

InnoAid.org - Project Manager
Facilitating Sustainable Solutions

Denmark Phone: +45 52 65 17 07
Italy phone: +39 347 9277297
skype: pollmann_gomez_matias